

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

LORRAINE HENDERSON,

Defendant.

Crim. No. 09-10028-DPW

GOVERNMENT'S MOTION TO IMPOSE SENTENCE

More than one year ago, on March 22, 2010, a jury convicted defendant Lorraine Henderson of encouraging or inducing an illegal alien to reside in the United States. Following the jury verdict, defendant renewed her motion for a judgment of acquittal and for a new trial, both of which the government opposed. See Docket Entries 60, 61, 62 and 63. On June 18, 2010, the parties appeared before the Court for a sentencing hearing. At the hearing, although the Court ultimately solicited and heard oral argument on the parties' sentencing recommendations, the Court dedicated much of the hearing to further argument on the defendant's Rule 29 motion and motion for new trial. Ultimately, the Court took the matters under advisement.

It is now more than nine months since the sentencing hearing and the Court has neither rendered a sentence nor ruled on the defendant's motions. Accordingly, the government respectfully requests that the court schedule a further hearing to impose sentence on the defendant.

Respectfully submitted,

CARMEN M. ORTIZ
United States Attorney
